((I hope I spelled those right. Are there any words for incompetent GMS?))

Thanks again for your patience this issue. I do have a good reason for being late. I've just been awarded a

That's great for me; it means money, experience, the chance to work closely with a expert in ag policy, maybe even a published paper. It's not so great for these games; it means I'll have 20 hours a week less free time on top of classes and my job.

Meanwhile, I'll run the United Hockey game deadlines a week ahead of the Dip games. The league can take as much time as all the Dip games. This means the hockey coaches will not usually see all of B16 HITS unless we have a trade arrangement.

Since someone asked, my policy on players from the same city in a single game is the same as the BNCe. I don't like it, but I'll allow two. I'll adjust the country assignments so the two are not next to one another (though in SURFING BIRD, I messed up and placed David and George in Austria and Italy.) I'll let the three of you free Warner Robins fight it out yourselves who'll get in the game now open.

F/X-MIST COUNTY HOPEFULS: Good eeeevening, gentlemen. With a new manager replacing the "disappeared" Mr. Tighe things could get reeeeeealy scary! But don't worry, we only release the "Killer Tomatoes" at home games. A "Full Moon" to all from the Great White North, where truly frightful hockey was born.

AN EMILY LITTLA REPORT FROM WASHINGTON: Now what is all the fuss about President Reagan giving aid to Conejos. He could have given aid to the S.O.C.K. team or even the NICE GUYS, but instead he gives all these BILLIONS of DOLLARS to the Nicaraguan CONEJOS. (Emily.) Yes, heavy? (No, it's Chevy, and it's not Nicaraguan CONTRAS, no the CONEJOS.) Oh, well, that's very different. (Yes it is.) Never mind.

SOCK-NICE GUY: Yep, I went big on defense, as everybody else seemed to go on offense. I play very differently from everyone as you know.

Thanks again for your patience this season. My schedule has really tightened up, and I have to extend my normal turnaround time to 5 days. I finally do have a revised season schedule for you though.

No one has commented on my name for this league. Mist County is the site of Garrison Keillor's fictional Lake Wobegone. Are any of you Prairie Home Companion fans?

Surprisingly, I've found the most time consuming part of doing this thing is assigning the goals and penalties. I don't have that automated yet, and since we have so many more shots and penalties than United Soccer, it's a bitch.

A third of the way through, I'm fairly happy with the results. The main flaws I see are too many goals, not enough power play goals, and too easy for rookie goaltenders. Next season I am contemplating cutting all the shot formulas in half (but give each team a minimum of maybe 10 shots per game), increasing the number of added shots for penalties by 3 or 4 times, increasing the number of games rookies play at zero to 4 for FW and DF, and 12 for GL. I'll probably fine tune the goalie formula as well, I want low goaltenders to really suffer. I can assure you that MOPAC is not taking advantage of a loophole to be undefeated.

I'll hold all press for a couple days so I can mail this today. I've still got all the Oip games to do, so no need to make you wait for these.
